

Ontario Applied Systems User Group Conference

Monday, April 26th
& Tuesday, April 27th

Holiday Inn - Yorkdale

The 2010 Ontario User Group Education Conference has been scheduled for April 26th & 27th, at the Holiday Inn-Yorkdale (located at Dufferin and Highway 401) – same great location as last year!

We know it sounds like a cliché, but our 5th conference will be even bigger and better!!

Our opening speaker is Mark Layden, Applied Systems' Chief Operating Officer.

Need your RIBO hours? We will have 15 different courses available over the 2 days.

We have new sessions, that will help you make even better use of TAM. Included are:

- Version 10.4
- Word 2003 to 2007 – Where Are Things Now?
- Excel – More Than A Spreadsheet
- Your Inbox Is Not Your Customer Filing Cabinet
 - CompuQuote – Motorcycles & Miscellaneous Vehicles
- Accounting Utilities
- Miscellaneous Accounting Topics
- TAM Tips & Tricks
- Preparing For A RIBO Audit
- 10.4 Benefits Module
- Social Networking
- System Administrator Utilities
- E&O Seminar
- Pivot Tables & TAM For Beginners
- Excel Pivot Tables & Retention Sheet

The price for the 2 day event is $275 for ASCnet members, ad $350 for non-members – the prices haven't changed since our 2006 conference. The price includes access to all education sessions, RIBO hours for attending, breakfast and lunch on both days, and an invitation to the vendor reception and trade show.

For more information on the sessions, presenters, vendors, and hotel information, please visit our website www.tascnet.ca

You can register online, and get confirmation immediately!!

Don't miss this great opportunity to see the latest Applied Systems has to offer, to upgrade your skills, to earn RIBO hours, and to network with other brokers.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate in contacting Chris Gory at chrisg@insuranceportfolio.com or 416-754-3910.

We look forward to seeing you then!!